Jubilee Project Update:

The city of Stafford has approved and stamped the drawings that are needed for the construction.

The building committee has shortlisted one construction company and is in the process of finalizing the steps necessary to sign a contract with them.

Efforts are underway to collect the needed funds for the construction of our Jubilee project by taking personal loans from our members at 4.50% interest rate. Members will be paid interest at the end of each year, though they have the option to return the interest amount paid to them back to the church. The minimum loan amount was set at 10,000 dollars.

Please consider this request prayerfully.

RESET YOUR SPIRITUAL LIFE

Dearly Beloved in Christ,

Reset our spiritual life. We are entering into the Great Lent, the beautiful time in the church calendar, worshiping the passion, suffering, and resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ. This is the time we bow down and worship the Lord. Bowing down is a very beautiful spiritual exercise. When we bow down, it reminds us to put down our ego, selfishness, pride, jealousy, envy, and the like. It also reminds us to submit to the Lord and surrender to His will. The music and the chants are of sadness. But we look forward to Easter, the resurrection of our Lord, and the transformation and newness that has been brought to our life. By bowing down and worshipping God, let's reset our lives.

Let's reset our life by fasting and praying. During this time of Great Lent, all of us set aside time to fast and pray. There is no lent without fasting. Rather than a ritual, fasting is a spiritual, theological, and faith expression. In the Old Testament, we read about the 'breaking of the fast' by Adam and Eve by eating the fruit. Jesus our Lord began His ministry with fasting and praying. The result of Adam's failure is the expulsion from paradise and death. The result of Jesus, our Lord's victory is the destruction of death and the restoration of humans to paradise. In this perspective, fasting is revealed to us as something decisive and ultimate in its importance. It is not merely a custom or tradition or obligation; it relates to the very mystery of life and death, of salvation and damnation.

Reset our life with deep love. It is a time to reset our relationships; husband and wife, parents and children, siblings each other, church as a community, and professional relation. The whole worship of lent and passion will be meaningful if we receive the love of Jesus our Lord and share the same. Our Lord manifested divine love throughout his life on earth, especially in passion. As a symbol of his love, he washed the feet of his disciples. St. John says: "Having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end." The end is just like emptying the cup after finishing a drink. There is nothing left. The imagery is perfect for the perfect love. Let our love for each other be the same. So, let's reset our relationship. Organize the work schedule and life schedule accordingly to attend all the worship services. Reduce food, and screen time, slow down in life, enjoy silence, and refresh our life. Fill the love of our Lord in us and share the same love with all.

May God bless you all
